Reading and Notices

Reading: Genesis 37. 3-8

Now as it happened, Jacob loved Joseph more than any of his other children, because Joseph was born to him in his old age. So one day Jacob gave him a special gift—a brightly coloured coat. His brothers of course noticed their father's favouritism, and therefore hated Joseph; they couldn't say a kind word to him. One night Joseph had a dream and promptly reported the details to his brothers, causing even deeper hatred.

"Listen to this," he proudly announced. "We were out in the field binding sheaves, and my sheaf stood up, and your sheaves all gathered around it and bowed low before it!"

"So you want to be our king, do you?" his brothers derided. And they hated him both for the dream and for his cocky attitude. *For the Word of the Lord, Thanks be to God

Vacancy for an Events Administrator

The Church is looking for a volunteer to become our Events Administrator.

We need someone who is organised and detail conscious to take over existing systems that are already well developed. The work can be done at any time other than the occasional meeting in church with hirers. This important role contributes greatly to the success of our fundraising events. If you are interested, please contact one of our Churchwardens, Julie or Lesley, for more information.
