Reading and Notices

Compline: God our saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and in power; hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

First Reading: Psalm 133

How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!

It is like the precious oil on the head, running down upon the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down over the collar of his robes.

It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion. For there the Lord ordained his blessing, life for evermore.

*For the Word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God*

Gospel: John 15. 9-17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

*This is the Gospel of the Lord,
Praise to you, O Christ*

Worship software trial

The PCC has approved a four-week trial of SongPro, which is worship software for churches.

You can read more about the software, its capabilities and the benefits it could bring to those preparing and leading services in the July/August parish magazine (out next weekend).

Apart from the projector and screen being used on those four Sundays, you may not notice much difference, but those preparing the services certainly will!
